

Missouri Youth Livestock Grading and Judging Contest and Workshop

Saturday, March 9, 2013
University of Missouri Trowbridge Livestock Center

Hosted by the Missouri Department of Agriculture, USDA Agricultural Marketing Service and the University of Missouri

The Missouri Youth Livestock Grading and Judging Contest is a competitive event for students in the 8th grade or above, or after two years of participation in the Missouri Youth Grading and Judging Workshop. The Contest includes both team and individual competition, with team scores based on 4 members and groups of fewer than 4 scored as individuals only. There is no limit on the number of teams. The contest is also open to adults. Only adults wishing to receive official cards need to register and pay; those attending only as spectators should not be listed on the registration form. It is the responsibility of the advisor to specify which participants they would like grouped into a team.

The Workshop is a non-competitive, educational event open to all Missouri youth 9th grade or lower. Participation in the Workshop is recommended prior to entering the Contest. Enrollment in the Workshop is limited to two years, and each 4-H club or FFA chapter may enter a maximum of 8 individuals into the Workshop. Due to space limitations, entries are limited to the first 275 received. Each participant must be accompanied by an adult leader, parent or instructor.

The registration fee for the Missouri Youth Livestock Grading and Judging Contest and Workshop is $6.00 per participant. Registrations will not be accepted after February 6, 2013. Payment must accompany registration and may be made by check, money order or credit card*. Please make checks payable to: Agriculture Business Development Division. Refunds are not available, however substitutions may be made at check-in. There will be no on-site registration.

Snacks will be provided during short breaks. Lunch will be available for purchase on-site.

Please mail registration and payment information to:
